

MY PARIS STORY

Do you ever wonder what it would be like to make your dreams come true in your dream destination? Do you wish you could pick up everything, uproot your “safety systems” and move to an exciting city or country for a fresh start? Many of us daydream about sailing off into the sunset for a new adventure in a magical place, but how many actually do it?

Welcome to My Paris Story: Living, Loving and Leaping without a net in the City of Light.

My Paris Story is the much-anticipated anthology that combines the stories of 22 authors from around the globe who have made this dream come true in the world’s most dreamed about city: Paris, France. It is the result of harnessing the extraordinary creative energy of an exuberant, passionate and motivated group of women who actually did pick up everything and took the leap to follow their hearts’ desires in the City of Light.

These authors, businesswomen, leaders and mothers found each other in Paris as “like attracting like” does, through the group The Paris Women of Success. Together they created a book to empower women and to encourage them to live their best life possible.

My Paris story will answer your questions about what it’s like to not only survive but thrive in a foreign city, as many of the authors have done. The rules are different, a new language has to be learned, the social codes deciphered. None of these hurdles were crossed easily or without setbacks. But little by little, victories were achieved every day. The stories convey the message that you should never stop learning and never stop challenging yourself or your ability to evolve.

"This wonderful book, part travelogue, part inspirational read, is about taking chances, getting lost, and starting again by women who - literally and figuratively - lost and found themselves in arguably the most romantic country in the world." -Tessa Souter, Downbeat Rising Star vocalist and author of Anything I Can Do You Can Do Better (Vermillion-Radom House).

So jump in the metro or on the back of a velib (Paris rental bikes) and join the ride! Paris has some surprises up her sleeve and we can’t wait to share them with you.
